In Loving Memory of

Sabina Atieno Nyindodo

(December 26, 1959 - November 24, 2000)

Think not disdainfully of death, but look on it with favor; for even death is one of the things that Nature wills.

Marcus Aurelius Antoninus

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Mum Sabina Atieno Nyindodo who was born in Kenya Taita taveta on December 26, 1959 and passed away on November 24, 2000 at the age of 40. Sabina had abundant love that she shared with everyone. She was a mother of all with a heart of gold! You will live forever in our memories and hearts.

The background is a textured, light brown or beige color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing more of its petals. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, blending into the background.

Days have turned to weeks, weeks to months and months to years! yes it is seven years since you painfully left us...we have lots of wonderful memories and lots of good things we learnt from you. You were an angel to everyone and touched everyones hearts...not minding who they were and where they came from! you left a huge gap and you are surely missed...your charm, beauty oh and that smile will always leave in our hearts. I know God has kept you in good place and your spirit leaves with us, though physically gone, will only have beautiful memories to leave with us forever. May God rest your soul in peace mum till we meet again. Love you always.....Betty Aunty Sabina was a blessing to us from above. I thank God that she sent her to touch our lives in the special way she did. She was loving, caring and understanding. Even though she was our aunty, she took us in like her own and was always there for my family and I. The bond we had was more than that of a nephew/ niece and an aunty...she was above all, a friend. She touched alot of people's lives with her smiles and ever happy demenour.

I will always and forever miss her. Till we meet again at Jesus' feet, God be with you. RIP aunty Sabina. I love you..Ronnie (babake)

Eva Malit

Aunty Sabina,

She is the kind of aunt everyone should have. A mother, a friend...and many more. I truly miss you aunty. Beautiful woman, very kind at heart...I remember one time we went to Kisumu after graduating high school and she took us like her own children. Gave us everything and I am not exaggerating...everything and anything we asked for. We did go through some really good times and scary times...but aunty was always full of life and found a way of making a laugh out of everything...we put everything behind us and all we could do was laugh about how we needed to dress up real good when going to bed at night.(Those who were there know what am talking about.) I miss you so much, it was always comforting to know that even though my mum was no longer there you would always be there....but hey...God has his own chanos. Am glad you were part of my life and all I can say is rest mama... rest aunty till we meet again!

Lilian Nyindodo

It's hard to believe that its already 6 years since mum sadly left us. I have abundant memories that we shared together but more so i am thankful for her bringing me to this world and raising me to the person i am now. Mum was always ready to give her advice on everything. She was not only a mother but a friend too, whom you could count on at any time. she helped me through some tough moments in life especially when dad died. I thought i would never go on but she did everything to make sure that i became stronger... then she was gone and i wondered what was left of me and who would help me go through this! I was lucky to have such a lovely and caring family to help us through this and more so mum spirit was always there to guide us. I miss you so much mum. words will never express the pain we feel in our hearts not having you around . May God rest your soul in eternal peace till we meet again. always your loving daughter.. Lilian
